Study Days

At the end of each fall and spring semester, the two days prior to the beginning of the Final Exam Schedule are designated as Study Days. Classes do not meet during Study Days. All major reports and assignments should be scheduled to be completed before Study Days.

Study Days are not to be used as dates on which papers are to be turned in, examinations are to be given, quizzes are to be scheduled, mandatory review sessions are to be held, or for any other class-related activities, other than office hours. Faculty may conduct voluntary review sessions at which no new material is presented on these days.

Final Exams

Regardless of course modality, final examinations given during the Final Exam Schedule must be given on the dates and at the times when they are scheduled. Unless otherwise noted, exams will take place in the same classroom where the class has been scheduled over the semester.

Thursday night final exams are scheduled on day-two of Study Days. For Fall 2020 semester only, Wednesday night final exams will be scheduled on day-one of Study Days.

Departure from the Final Exam Schedule can be authorized only by the Dean of the respective school.
