FOR STUDENT ENGAGEMENT

You are invited to attend and support RIS²E

ABOUT RIS²E

The Risk and Insurance Industry Summit for Student Engagement (RIS²E) is a unique seminar format that brings a diverse group of industry professionals together with St. Mary's University students for roundtable discussions about relevant industry topics. The students kick off each roundtable discussion with an introduction to their topics based on their research.

Seminar attendance is limited to 40 industry professionals to ensure meaningful engagement and active participation by all. RIS²E encourages students to build professional relationships, gain industry knowledge and strengthen their opportunities for successful entry into the field.

The mix of risk management, insurance brokerage and insurance company representatives makes RIS²E unique compared to other industry conferences.
